

Solution

Netvibes of Cité des métiers of Paris

Netvibes is a website that allows you to keep track of websites, which are updated automatically. The Cité des métiers of Paris has developed its Netvibes tool in order to share and classify updated information between the professionals regarding the new services offers, time slots for front desk officer, practical information, documentary resources

Objectives

To facilitate access to updated information to front desk officer and maintaining a well managed reception service

Impact

Better updated information provided to ends users according to their needs

Key words

Information sharing
Collaborative platform
Cooperation between professionals